Q: How to customize NSWindow to keep the corners rounded? How can I make the corners of the NSWindow rounded without removing the gradient of the window? The only solution I found to remove the gradient is removeSubview: and addSubview: in drawRect:. The following code is what I'm talking about: - (void)awakeFromNib { [self setShape:NSRoundRectShape]; [self setFrame:NSMakeRect(0, 0, 800, 556)]; }

This is a screenshot with the gradient: A: You can remove that gradient by removing the gradient mask from the window's backgroundView. // Copyright 2015 the V8 project authors. All rights reserved. // Use of this source code is governed by a BSD-style license that
